

On The Brighter Side

LIGHTING CAN MAKE OR BREAK A ROOM. IT IS A MINEFIELD OUT THERE, AS THE LIGHTING INDUSTRY IS GROWING AT AN EXPONENTIAL RATE WITH EXCITING NEW DESIGNS AND CUTTING-EDGE TECHNOLOGY. LIGHTING FIXTURES CAN, FOR EXAMPLE, BE MINIMALISTIC AND DISCREET OR SCULPTURAL WORKS OF ART.

This Page The contemporary Angelica outdoor lamp from Modoluce has a cantilever for easy maneuverability. The arm is made from extruded aluminum which is light but extremely resistant. Modoluce is available through Selecta Interior Design in C. Plaza in Nueva Andalucía (www.selectainteriorsign.com) and Arcolis in Pol. Ind. San Pedro de Alcántara (www.arcolis.es).

Opposite Page The Origami wall light from Vela is a creation from well-known designer Ramón Esteve. It comes in two versions and offers a wide range of possible configurations to suit your specific lighting requirements. Vela is available through the Alcon Berthel-Collins studio in San Pedro de Alcántara (www.alconberthelcollins.com) and IDEALITE in Edif. Playa del Duque in Puerto Banús (www.idealite.com).

HOME & LIFESTYLE 141